You will receive a confirmation email approving or denying your request. If approved, you will be in the Book system within 24-48 hours.

While you may opt in at any time, financial aid can only be used for purchasing books starting 10 days prior to Preview Week and ending the Monday after the start of classes. The ability to use financial aid for purchasing books online ends the Friday after classes start to allow time for processing.

You must request a new voucher every semester, and it can only be requested once. If you are requesting a voucher for Session I, be sure to order both Session I and Session II books at the same time.
